

REVISED ARTICLE X IS AGAIN ADOPTED BY VOTE OF SENATE

FIFTY-SIX TO TWENTY-SIX IN FA-VOR OF COMPROMISE AMEND-
MENT AS DRAWN BY SENATOR
LODGE — ACTION MAY BRING REFERENDUM NEXT FALL.

Washington, March 16.—Reaffirming its disagreement with President Wilson on the dominating issue of the peace treaty controversy, the Senate adopted late Monday by a vote of 56 to 26 the new Article X reservation drawn by Republican leaders.

Its action brought to an end, at least for the present, the protracted effort for a compromise that would insure ratification, and the Senate's decision was accepted generally as hastening the treaty toward another deadlock from which it could be released only by a verdict at the polls next November.

Fourteen Democrats voted with the Republican membership for the reservation, but this defection from the administration ranks fell far short of the number that would be required to ratify.

Wilson Leaders Confident.
It was conceded that others probably would swing over on the ratification roll call, but administration leaders, backed by a definite assurance that the new reservation was unacceptable to the President, evidenced no apprehension that their forces would dwindle beyond the danger point.

The vote showed on its face a two-thirds majority for the reservation, but it is to be noted indicated that two-thirds would vote for ratification on that basis. Indeed, in the majority were the Republicans holding about a score of votes which on the ratification roll call will be cast against the treaty.

Treaty of Reservation.

The reservation, adopted after many efforts to modify it had been voted down, is as follows: "Article X. In general from the last adjourned session of the Senate, to and including the second session of the 66th Congress, the employment of the military or naval forces, or in form of compact, discrimination, or association, in any way, in controversies between nations, including all controversies relating to territorial integrity or political independence, whether members of the League or not, under the provisions of Article X, or to employ the military or naval forces of the United States, under any article of the treaty for any purpose, unless in any particular case the Congress, which under the constitution has the sole power to declare war or authorize the employment of the military or naval forces of the United States, shall, in the exercise of full liberty of action by act or joint resolution so provide."
